

Eurydice Vanishes

Unexpectedly

William Wieland

The musical score is written for piano in common time. It consists of two staves. The right staff begins with a fermata over a whole note chord, with an octave sign 8^{va} and a dashed line above it. The left staff begins with a fermata over a whole note chord, with an octave sign 8^{vb} below it. Both staves then play a triplet of eighth notes. The right staff is marked mf and the left staff is marked p. The left staff continues with a section marked "loco" and "And." below it.

Hold the fermata and the damper pedal until the dynamic level matches the opening of "Deep Sorrow".
Begin "Deep Sorrow" without releasing the damper pedal.
